MILL WRIGHT.

AFTER AN EXPERIENCE OF TWENTY years in my business, I offer my services to the public, to build Mills, and set in running order Circular Saw Mills now in use, both double and single; simultaneous and Independent setting Screw Headblocks, two or more combined and the best friction feed in use. It is operated with a single lever, in front of the saw on the outside the carriage, thus saving one hand in the Mill. The double mill requires about one half the power to cut the same amount of Lumber, as the single Mill requires.
I will also put up Cotton Gins, Corn and Flour Mills.

TUESDAY, JULY 27, 1869.

[From the Glasgow, (Mo.) Journal.]

M'NEIL, THE PALMYRA BUTCHER.

So long as God gives us life, and the earth is cursed with the presence of McNeil, we feel it to be our solemn duty to rehearse, once every year, the story of the most atrocious and horrible occurrences in the annals of barbarous warefare. On the 17th day of October, 1862, a deed was enacted at the Fair Grounds at Palmyra, Missouri, which sent a thrill of horror throughout the civilized world. Ten brave, true and innocent men were taken from their prison, driven to the edge of the town, seated on their rough board coffins, and for no crime of their own, murdered like so many swine. Murdered! butchered! by the old blotch upon creation's face, John McNeil, now by the grace of bayonets, Tom Fletcher, and the Devil, Sheriff of St. Louis county! and a radical in full fellowship.

There was our poor, handsome, gallant, boyhood friend, Tom Sidener. As pure a soul as ever winged its flight from blood stained sod to that God who will yet, to all eternity damn the fiendish butcher McNeil! Poor Tom! He was a model paragon of manly grace and beauty. So exquisitely formed, features so perfect and fair, so brave and yet so gentle, that even the vile reptile, Nuichell, now editor of the Hannibal Courier, said that "in his beauty and wickedness he reminded him of Absolom." Poor fellow! He was engaged to be married to a young lady in Monroe county. When he learned he was to be shot, he sent for his wedding suit, which had just been made, declaring that if he could not be married in it, he intended to die in it. Arrayed in his elegant black broadcloth, and his white silk vest, when he mounted his course plank coffin in the wagon that was to bear him to death, he looked as it he was going to be married instead of shot. The very guards cried like children when they bid him good-bye. Raising his cap, and bowing to the weeping women, who lined the streets, he was driven from their sight, forever! Half an hour after, six musket balls pierced his noble heart, and his white silk wedding vest was torn and dyed in his martyr blood!

There was poor old Willis Baker, his dyed head whitened with the snows of more than seventy winters. Heroic old man! With his white hair streaming in the wind, he seated himself on his rude coffin, and died without a shudder, refusing with his last breath to forgive his executioners, and swearing that he would "meet and torment them in hell, through all eternity!"

There was that helpless, half idiot boy from Lewis county, who allowed himself to be blindfolded; then hearing Sidener and the others refuse, slipped up one corner of the bandage, and seeing the others with their eyes uncovered, removed the handkerchief from his own, and died as innocent as a lamb.

There was Humstead, and Bixler, and McPheeters.

And there was that most wonderful martyr of all—young Smith, of Knox county—who died for another man. His heart broken wife, in widow's weeds, with her eight helpless little ones in deep mourning, that was only less black than the anguish they endured, or the heart of him to whom she appealed, rushed to the feet of McNeil, and in accents so piteous, that a soul of adamant must have melted under it; besought him for the lives of her husband and father. She was brutally repulsed. But Stratcham, the monster of Shelby county, whom the angel of God, a few months afterward, smote with Herodian rottenness and worms—Stratcham, whose flesh literally petrified and fell from his living skeleton, at New Orleans—Stratcham, who has long been paying in the deepest, blackest, hottest hole in perdition, the penalty of his forty ply damnation deserving crimes, was Provost Marshal. He saw the frantic agony of the woman; called her into his office; and told her that he would save her husband, if she would give him three hundred dollars, and then submit—but oh, humanity shudders, sickens, at the horrid proposal. The wretched, half-crazed, agonized wife, not knowing what she did, acceded, to save her husband's life. And the next morning she was found lying insane and nearly dead, with her babe at her breast, near the public spring of Palmyra. After this, her husband was only released on condition that another should be shot in his place.

Young Smith was selected. And then ensued a contest without parallel in all the 6,000 years of human history. Humphrey refused to let any man die in his stead, declared he would feel himself a murderer if he did. Smith protested that he was only a poor orphan boy, and so far as he knew there was not a soul on earth to grieve for him; that Humphey had a large family, entirely dependent on him for daily bread, and it was his duty to live if he could.—And Smith, the simple country lad, only seventeen years old, the Hero without a peer on all Fame's mighty scroll, took his seat on his rough box—and was shot.

We might dwell for hours on the incidents connected with the most frightful butchery of ancient or modern ages. But why go on? The murder was done! The Confederate Government talked of demanding the murderer McNeil. Then a "memorial" was gotten up, and signed by two thousand Missourians, recommending the accursed old monster, on account of his Palmyra massacre, to the special favor of Abe Lincoln. And he was promoted to a Brigadier Generalship.

The green sod of the Palmyra Fair Grounds long since drank up the life blood of ten innocent, heroic hearts. The melancholy elms wave their dark boughs peacefully over the scene of the terrible tradegy. The last time we saw the place the plough had turned and part of the historic grounds, and the green corn glittered in the sunlight where once the murderers musket gleamed. All traces of the fearful crime had faded from the spot; and everything was quiet, serene and beautiful as of yore. But until the heavens are rolled away as a scroll, and the great Archangel sounds the knell of Time the Blood Spots of the Palmyra Massacre will stand out—deep, dark and ineffaceable—upon the records of Earth's darkest horrors. Its frightful memories can never, should never die! Generation after generation should repeat the story; mothers should tell it to their children. And the names of Butcher McNeil and all the signers of his black "memorial" should be inscribed in letters of flame upon the gates of hell, and be damned with their owners to everlasting infamy, hatred and execration!

READ WHAT THE
HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, JULY 27, 1869.

Conservative and Democratic Nominee.

FOR SENATOR,

FOR THE NINETEENTH DISTRICT,

JOSHUA PERRY,

OF FRANKLIN.

BURNING IN ORANGE.

On Friday night, the 23rd of July, one of the most peaceable and orderly neighborhoods of Orange or any other County, was greatly excited by the midnight burning of barns, grain, forage and horses. We have warned the people of the frightful crisis to which the Country is rapidly advancing, through the instrumentality of secret political organizations. One secret society is sure to beget another. The leaguers have begotten the Ku Klux. Good men should endeavor to suppress and put down both of the organizations as dangerous to the peace and good order of society.

In acting as Grand President of the Leagues, Governor Holden is aware that he is acting criminally. Ten years ago, as the Standard will show, Governor Holden, then its editor, condemned without measure secret political organizations.

The burning on last Friday night can be traced to secret societies—the leaguers and the kuklux; the leaguers being the most guilty.

Major Tatten, carpet-bag President of a League at Battleboro, in Edgecombe county, ordered a committee composed of members of the League to go to the county of Nash and arrest a negro member of the League for voting the Democratic ticket.

The committee found him in the field at work; they seized upon him and carried him before the League at Battleboro, where they kept him in mortal terror for a day discussing whether or not they should hang him. A motion is finally made to refer the punishment to the Governor for his decision.

Major Tatten and the negro members of the League who committed the outrage were indicted, convicted and imprisoned.

By order of a secret League commander of the army, Tatten and the negroes were turned out of prison.

W. W. Holden being Provisional Governor at the time, made no remonstrance against their release and is thought, by many, to have secretly favored it.

In Wilson county, some eight or ten negro members of the League went to the house of a Democrat negro at night, and gave him 300 lashes for voting the Democratic ticket. They were indicted, convicted and imprisoned. Judge Thomas, a League Judge, holding the Court. Governor Holden pardoned them and they were released from jail forthwith.

On the trial it was proposed by the prosecuting attorney, Hon. Lewis M. Dortch, to prove that the whipping was done by order of the League, but the Judge refused to allow him to prove it.

Murphy Reeves, negro and Leaguer, lives in the neighborhood of the burning which occurred on Friday night last.

We are informed that he visited the Governor, who is head centre of the Leagues, for counsel and advice. The Governor advised him to Ku Klux the Ku Klux; so the negro said. Since his visit, Murphy Reeves has been speech making in the neighborhood, showing his Bowie knife, declaring the negro must rule this county or this knife would drink the blood of 500 white men. On Tuesday night, Murphy Reeves was Ku Kluxed; after he fired on the Ku Klux they fired on him. Murphy was dangerously wounded.

On Friday night the barns of Frank Minor, Jesse Morrow and William Jones were discovered to be on fire at the same time. Mr. Minor lost his entire wheat crop, besides oats and forage. Mr. Morrow lost his wheat crop, forage, two horses and a mule. Mr. Jones lost his wheat crop and forage. Orange has not three more peaceable citizens than Messrs. Minor, Jones and Morrow. If they had gone to the house of Murphy Reeves, and, without provocation, shot and maltreated him, we say to retaliate by burning might be expected from ignorant negroes, especially when the Governor, speaking for the Leagues, had said Ku Klux the Ku Klux. But these gentlemen are not Ku Klux. They had nothing to do with the punishment of Murphy Reeves. Yet they are the sufferers.

Murphy Reeves did not burn them out, for he was ill of his wounds and could not get out; besides, it required three men to do the firing at the same time. The barns burned were in the same neighborhood, not more than three miles apart, and all burning at the same time.

Judge Tourgee, at Rockingham, charged the Grand Jury, if they could not ferret out the offenders who, in disguise, were punishing citizens, then the citizens must retaliate. Governor Holden holds similar language.

Burnings, such as occurred last Friday night, must follow such teachings. If the Leagues and Ku Klux would murder and burn each other only, outsiders might say stab and burn, but outsiders are in most danger. Leaguers will charge them with being Ku Klux and Ku Klux will suspect them of being Leaguers, and suspicion is enough for either to act upon.

When France was governed by secret societies as is North Carolina to-day, the French murdered and burned as has been done in North Carolina since the accursed Leagues were organized in the State. Of the 80,000 men, women and children, of France, who were murdered during the reign of terror and secret societies, 40,000 came to their death through the means and agency of secret political Leagues, such as prevail here, to-day.

As soon as Laffin, Major Tatten, Governor Holden and the rogue, Judge Alden, shall have sworn, into their Leagues, all the negroes, ignorant white men and saleable lawyers who, like Sherrard, Cantwell, Starbuck, Judge Jones and Billy Henderson, want office and place, and the other side to counteract them, shall have sworn in an equal number, the outsiders may quit the State, for there will be no security to person or property.

When Governor Holden boldly preached secession as he did for twenty years, we told him secession would produce war; he hooted at the idea. He signed the ordinance—war followed; he declared the war "God's holy cause," and said every man from 16 to 60, should be in it." Now the end of all his aims is the punishment of secessionists, and he lays at their door all the calamities which have befallen the South. He advocated secession, so long as it paid—Holden; he advocated the war, so long as it paid—Holden; he advocated the course of Governor Vance, so long as it paid—Holden; he advocated reconstruction under President Johnson, so long as it paid—Holden; he advocated reconstruction under Congress, so long as it paid—Holden; he advocated the cause of every carpet bagger in the State, so long as it paid—Holden.

He has deserted and betrayed every man or party who trusted him. Secret political societies are to make our next troubles and Governor Holden is to head them until danger faces him and then he will skulk like a coward.

NEPOTISM.

The Church of England once suffered greatly from Episcopal nepotism. The Bishops conferred all their patronage upon their sons, sons in law and relations.

The English and French governments have suffered from the nepotism of their Nobility. In this free land, where "merit wins the prize," the government or public service has never suffered from nepotism until now.

Governor Holden was the first to introduce the practice of appointing his relations, son and sons in law to office without once consulting the public good. He was hardly installed in his office as Governor before he ordered Mayor Haywood to vacate the office of Mayor, and commissioned his brother-in-law to fill the place. Mayor Haywood questioned the right of the Governor to remove him. The Governor called for troops to oust him. The Military Commander had the decency to deny him.—Mayor Haywood appealed to the Court and the Court decided against the Governor.

In Orange and Caswell the Governor appoints his brothers and cousins as Magistrates. They were war men and rebels, to whom he had for twenty years preached secession.

When the Chapel Hill Railroad was chartered he appointed his son Joe Director, although his thoughts, habits and pursuits wholly disqualified him for the position. Joe left the House in session in which he was Speaker, to attend to his duties as Director. On this trip it was he broke his tickler. When the Directors met at Chapel Hill, out of five, the Governor had two of his family on the Board—his son and his brother. The brother was an indelicate but otherwise proper appointment.

When the Granville Road was chartered, the Governor was so well pleased with Joe's services on the Chapel Hill Road, he made him Director on that Road. Unless breaking his tickler was meritorious and pleasing to the father, the son certainly exhibited no aptness for Railroad management, sufficient to win a place on the Granville Road. It may be the Governor has his son in training for the Presidency of some Road, if so, he has more excuse for his nepotism than we at first supposed.

Coleman, the late worthless and drunken Attorney General, resigned his office after disgracing it, to the great satisfaction of every man in the State. Even the Governor was said to be rejoiced at the resignation of Coleman, but it turns out that the Governor was rejoiced because it made a vacancy which his son in law could fill, or rather to which he could be appointed.—The Governor's son in-law, the new Attorney General, is certainly an improvement on Coleman, for he is an inoffensive, well behaved gentleman, made up of negative rather than positive qualities. It is certainly no disparagement of him to say he has no legal or constitutional learning to qualify him as the constitutional adviser of the Governor, for he has never made the law his study, or the practice of it his business.

We see no vice in this nepotism of the Governor. It is proper he should take care of his family, but not at too great a detriment to the public service and general good.

The Democrats and Conservatives of Chambers, Tallapoosa, Clay, and Randolph counties, Ala., are to have a grand gathering at Louisville on Monday, the 23 day of August. All opponents of Radicalism, by whatever name they are called, are invited to meet on that day and listen to the addresses of the distinguished speakers who will be present. A lively and agreeable time is anticipated.

The Mobile Colored Democratic Club has issued an address to the colored voters of Alabama, informing them that sooner or later the political power of the South will pass into the hands of the white men, and that it is therefore for the interests of the negro to cultivate friendly relations with the whites.

PUBLIC MEETING IN ORANGE.

At a meeting of a portion of the people of Orange at Miles', the following proceedings were had.

On motion of R. M. Jones, James P. Clark was called to the Chair, and N. B. Bain appointed Secretary.

A Committee of three was on motion appointed to submit resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, which reported the following:

WHEREAS, The barns and stables of Frank Minor, Jesse Morrow and William Jones, were burned on Friday night last, in which were consumed grain, horses and mules: And whereas, such atrocious acts were not known in this country until the organization of secret political societies: And whereas, the barns and stables of our neighbors were fired at and about the same time, showing that three or more were engaged in the diabolical work: And whereas, the secret political organizations known as leagues, are known to have in their organized capacity men appointed to commit acts of violence upon unoffending citizens; therefore,

Resolved, That our suspicions naturally turn to the members of the leagues, of which Governor Holden is the Grand President, as the persons who committed the arson, and were guilty of barn burning on Friday last.

Resolved, That Gov. Holden, in the days of Know Nothings, having taught the people that "secret political organizations were dangerous to liberty and Republican government," that he be requested to dissolve the leagues, of which he is President, and thereby restore peace to society, protection to property and security to barns.

Resolved, That the Governor be and he is hereby requested to ascertain the head centre of the Ku Klux or any other secret political organization of the country, and use his influence to have them dissolved, and we promise our hearty co-operation in the good work.

Resolved, That we tender to Messrs. Minor, Morrow and Jones, our heart felt sympathy and material aid for their great loss, coming in a way to make every man feel his insecurity.

Resolved, That it behooves us to make every effort to detect the incendiaries and bring them to condign punishment.

Resolved, That when they are detected we want no mob, but civil law for their trial and punishment.

Resolved, That the presentment of the Grand Jury of the county, presenting Congress, the Governor, the Bureau and the Judges, meets our unqualified approbation.

Resolved, That the conduct of the Judiciary, in the late campaign, was calculated to lower and degrade the Bench in the estimation of the people.

Resolved, That Judge Tourgee, riding his circuit, and declaring himself a candidate for Congress from the same bench on which he sat to administer justice, was an error so grave as to amount to a crime. His fight on the circuit, with his political adversary in the presence of ladies, was unbecoming a grave judicial functionary.

Resolved, That notwithstanding Judge Tourgee did deny that he was presented by the Grand Jury, and boasted in the public prints, that he would have put the Grand Jury in jail, if they had presented him—yet the fact is so. As a portion of the Grand Jury in this meeting can testify, they having made and signed the presentment, which is filed among the records of the Court in Hillsboro.

Resolved, That when Judge Tourgee or any other Judge, shall declare himself a candidate for Congress, without first resigning as Judge—the Grand Jury of Orange shall and will present him, and if he shall as Judge Tourgee publicly threatens, put the Grand Jury in jail, we promise to make the Court House too hot to hold His Honor.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of Judge Reade's letter to John D. Hyman Esq., every word of which is condemnatory of Judge Reade himself, and those Judges who with him took an active part in politics.

Resolved, That our thanks and the thanks of all lovers of liberty and free speech are due to Hon. B. F. Moore, Governor Bragg and the members of the bar who signed the "solemn protest" against Judicial interference in political matters.

Resolved, That the rule of the Supreme Court upon the bar, punishing them for political action and conduct, out of Court, and without a hearing was contemptible and petty tyranny, not to be tolerated by a free people in a free government.

Resolved, That it is high time the government, both State and Federal, should cease to be administered in the interest of party and for the benefit of a few, but on principles of justice equity and the Constitution for the good of the whole.

Resolved, That it is high time the affairs of the people of North Carolina were again in the hands of North Carolinians, and we do declare it a reproach even to a conquered people to take strangers, stragglers and camp followers of an invading army as their Judges and representatives, as the people of the South have been forced to do.

Resolved, That we declare it a special reproach to the people of North Carolina, that they should have Abbott, of New Hampshire for their Senator, Heaton, French and Deweese from parts unknown for their Representatives in Congress; Ashley of Cape Cod for their Superintendent of Public Instruction; Meuninger of New York for Secretary of State; Martling and Brewer of parts unknown for Professors in our University. Laffin, French, Davis, $1200, Stephens, Estes and others for members of our Legislature; Byrnes a carpet bagger for Clerk of the Senate, and Oliver a negro from the Bermuda Isles, as Engrossing Clerk.

Resolved, That the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Judges, and the late soldiers of the Confederate army, such as Rodman, Settle and Barringer, who contributed to the elevation of these adventurers, should be held in less esteem than the adventurers themselves.

Resolved, That the people of the State have just cause to be proud of the University at Chapel Hill, where statesmen, Judges, and even a President of the United States, were educated.

Resolved, That, in our opinion, it was the political influence of Senator Pool that placed his brother Solomon at the head of the University. It was the political influence of Judge Settle that gave his cousin David Patrick a place as Professor. It was the influence of carpet baggers which gave Cape Cod Ashley's brother-in-law, Martling, a Professorship. It was carpet-bag influence, united with native degeneracy, which called Brewer from teaching a small negro school in Raleigh, to make him Professor in the University.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Trustees of the University, to discharge, and without delay, the President and carpet bag Professors of the University, and supply their places with competent Professors, who have the confidence of the people.

Resolved, That the Governor's sending armed vagabonds into Alamance and Jones counties, under a pretext of keeping the peace, was an invasion of the Constitutional rights and sacred privileges of every good citizen of the State, and merits their just condemnation.

Resolved, That the investigation of the Committee of the Legislature on Bribery and corruption, shows the legislative body of the State to be corrupt beyond the hope of honest legislation.

Resolved, That the purchase of 8,000 acres of land for a Penitentiary at $100,000 was an unveiled fraud, and those who gave it their sanction deserve public punishment.

Resolved, That the Railroad system of the Republican party is unwise, corrupt and corrupting, and not intended for the benefit of the people or the State, but for speculations in State stocks and bonds.

Resolved, That while we have been educated to abhor repudiation and repudiators, yet, when onerous debts are made by a corrupt Legislature through the corrupting influence of Wall Street brokers against the wishes of those who must pay them, repudiation may become a necessity as well as a virtue.

These resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The following resolution was then offered and adopted.

Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be tendered to the President and Secretary, and that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Hillsboro' Recorder and Raleigh Sentinel.

JAS. P. CLARK, President.

N. D. BAIN, Secretary.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—Ground will soon be broken for this road, which is to run from St. Paul (practically from the head of Lake Superior,) a distance of some 1,700 miles, to Seattle, on Puget Sound. This projected road, though farther north than the Union Pacific, is to be constructed on a lower level, and will, therefore, avoid some troubles from snow. The Chicago Advance says that along the whole length of the Northern Pacific line not more than 250 miles will have an elevation exceeding 3,000 feet above the sea, while 1,100 miles of the present Pacific road are more than 4,000 feet above the same sea level, and over 500 miles of the Union Pacific have an altitude of 7,500 feet.

While the highest point on the present line is 8,262 feet above tide water, the highest point on the North Pacific will be less than 4,000 feet above tide water.

The following facts are interesting: From the Pacific at San Francisco to the lakes at Chicago it is 2,423 miles. From the Pacific at Seattle to the lakes at Duluth it is only 1,774 miles. From Seattle to Chicago by way of Duluth (all rail), it is 2,140 miles. From New York to San Francisco via Chicago and Omaha it is 3,323 miles. From New York to Puget Sound via Chicago and the Northern Pacific route it is 3,040 miles. Finally, from New York to Shanghae via Chicago, San Francisco, and the Midway Islands, it is 10,423 miles. From New York to Shanghae via Chicago, the Northern Pacific, and Pugent Sound, it is 8,756 miles.

OLD HICKORY'S BRANDY BOTTLE.—There is in possession of Col. Robert S. Swords, of Newark, N. J., a relic of the old Democratic war-horse, Andrew Jackson, which is well worth a description. It is an old-fashioned, square, cut glass decanter. On one side it bears the inscription: 1829. Andrew Jackson to Col. John A. Stanard, U. S. A. On the opposite side appears C. M. Stanard to Col. R. S. Swords. It was presented by President Jackson to his intimate friend, Col. Stanard, who was also the intimate friend of Gen. Scott, and was present with the latter at the historic Lundy's Lane fight, and wounded there. The gallant Colonel died at the White House, in Washington, during Gen. Jackson's Presidency. Col. Swords married a daughter of Col. Stanard, and this bottle was presented to him by his mother-in-law, Mrs. C. M. Stanard. The letters of the inscription are in handsome German text. It bears the name of Old Hickory's brandy bottle. Col. Swords, however, keeps it always filled with pure old rye. He delights in producing it whenever a Democrat of the Jackson school comes along.

CROWNED CORPSE.—A letter from Cracow gives the following details in connection with the late discovery of the remains of Casimir the Great in that city:

"That king expired on the 5th of November, 1370, and his body was deposited in the Cathedral of Cracow, when a colossal monument was erected to his memory. No one supposed that the remains of the deceased monarch would be found in the church itself, because, according to ecclesiastical traditions, saints alone could be buried in the sacred edifice, and all hope had been renounced of ever discovering the corpse. Lately the restoration of the monument, which had begun to decay under the action of centuries, was commenced and some blows on the front part of the base brought the missing remains to light; two tiles fell, and a light inserted in the opening showed the crown and scepter, and in the former the skull of the king. By enlarging the aperture some bones enveloped in purple cloth, tolerable preserved, were discovered. An opening was then made on the opposite side of the tomb, and at the feet of the skeleton were found the spurs in a perfect state and attached by leather straps. The scepter and globe are in silver, and the crown and spurs in copper gilt ornamented with precious stones. The skull is of remarkable size. Scarcely a trace remains of the coffin except the iron bars which strengthened it, and to which the purple cloth had been attached. Five hundred years have totally devoured the wood. When a report of this discovery had been drawn up, and the celebrated painter Jean Matejko had made a drawing of all the emblems, the tomb was again walled up by the archeological commission. The most important result of this event is the fact that the crown of the greatest king of the Piast family exists in the cathedral of the ancient Polish capital."

Baron Lemini and Miss Nettie Throckmorton were married in Fifth avenue, New York, on Wednesday. Owing to a recent bereavement in the Throckmorton family, the marriage ceremony was conducted privately, about thirty relatives and friends of the bride's family being present. Miss Throckmorton was the recipient of very many rich and elegant bridal presents, some of which are remarkably rare and beautiful. The bridegroom gave her a set of pearls valued at $30,000. Mr. Conkling gave her a shawl and lace valued at $10,000, and from friends and relatives at home and in Europe her gifts will amount in value to $50,000. In August the pair will sail for Europe, where the Baron has an elegant estate.

A GOOD STORY BADLY DAMAGED.—Our excellent friend "Y," of the Baltimore Gazette, tells a good story how a daughter of ex-Secretary Borie recently saved a man from drowning at Cape May, by plunging into the water and dragging him out by the hair of the head. It is all true except that it wasn't a man whom the young lady saved, nor was it a woman, nor a child—Neither was it anybody nor anything that Miss Borie saved from being "moist, unpleasant body." The story is good—only there is no Miss Borie who is a daughter of the ex Secretary of the Navy.—Washington Express.

SOUTHSIDE RAILROAD.—The Farmville, Va. News says engineers are again at work surveying the route for the proposed change in this road from a point near Rice's Depot to Farmville. The change will confine the road on the south side of the Appomattox, and thus avoid the High Bridge. It is thought the new route will be put under contract in a short time.

THE ORIGIN OF RATTLESNAKES.

The attachment of the Red Indian aborigines to this famous reptile is proverbial; among nearly all the tribes, even at this present day, it is seldom disturbed, but is designated by the endearing name of grandfather. It is recorded, however, by the early historians, that when one tribe desired to challenge another to combat, they were in the habit of sending into the midst of their enemy the skin of a rattlesnake, whereby it would appear to have been employed as an emblem of revenge.—And as for the origin of the rattlesnake the old men among the Cherokees relate a legend to the following effect:

A very beautiful young man, with a white face, and wrapped in a white robe, once made his appearance in their nation, and commanded them to abandon all their old customs and festivals and to adopt a new religion. He made use of the softest language, and everything he did proved him to be a good man. It so happened, however, that he could make no friends among them, and the medicine men of the nation conspired to take his life. In many ways did they try to do this—by lashing him with serpents, and by giving him poison, but were always unsuccessful. But in process of time the deed was accomplished, and in the following manner: It was known that the good stranger was in the habit of daily visiting a certain spring for the purpose of quenching his thirst and bathing his body. In view of this fact, the magicians made a very beautiful war chest, inlaid with some mud and shells and decorated with rattles, and this chest they offered to the Good Spirit, with the prayer that he would teach them how to destroy the stranger. In answer to the prayer, a venomous snake was created and carefully hidden under a leaf by the side of the spring. The stranger, as usual, came there to drink, was bitten by the snake and perished. The Cherokee nation then fell in love with the snake, and, having asked the Great Spirit to distinguish it by some peculiar mark from all the other snakes in the world, he complied by transferring to its body the rattles which had made the chest of sacrifice so musical to the ear and so beautiful to the eye.

ROMANCE OF THE STAGE.—The life of a prima donna is a curious one, and, in many cases an enviable one.—The stage has always been to women a possible stepping stone to the peerage. Miss Stephens became Countess of Essex; Miss Foote, Countess of Harrington; Miss Bolton, Lady Thurlow; Victoria Baffe, first Lady Crampton, and now the wife of a Spanish grandee; our present favorite Patti has married a man of birth, a late equerry to the Emperor of the French, of whose court he was a distinguished ornament; and the name of Christine Nilsson has been coupled with possible titles. The triumphs of the stage are endless, as are the lovers which fair cantatrices seem to attract there. Of Mlle. Tiedjens a most romantic story is told. In the early days of her triumphs a young man of wealth and position wished to marry her, but he made it a condition that she should give up her profession. She asked for nine months to consider the proposals, but, happily, at the end of that time she made choice of the stage, to the lasting benefit of the world generally. Popular applause is lavished upon public singers in a manner that scarcely any other woman can possibly enjoy. When Piccolomini sang in Italy they not only showered boquets upon her, but now and then a white dove fluttered to her feet. When Jenny Lind sang at Stockholm the rush for seats was so great they were put up at auction and realized fabulous sums, all of which went to a fund to establish a school there for decayed artistes. As a body, there is no one more charitable than musical artistes.

When, in 1847, the Misses Pyne, (then not so well known to fame,) heard that a society for homeless children must fail to the ground for want of funds, they volunteered, unasked, to give a concert for its benefit, which was eminently successful.—Clara Novello's triumphs ought not to be forgotten. At Genoa her audience threw boquets containing valuable coronets at her feet, to say nothing of camelias worth twenty-five guineas apiece, and then escorted her home with torches and flambeaux. A greater triumph, however, has scarcely been achieved by any singer than the unparalleled reception given to Patti of late in Russia. The sums which fortunate singers realize, too, is almost incredible. Everybody doubtless remembers Gabrielli's reply to Catherine II of Russia, when she expressed her astonishment at her demanding eight thousand ducats for singing by saying, "Why, I don't pay a field Marshal as much as that." "Well, then, get the field marshal to sing for you." The Empress seems to have seen the force of the argument, and paid the demand. There are so few first rate voices in the world, that they can always ensure their price. The said Gabrielli made a large fortune, and lived in the greatest spendor. The anecdotes of her extravagance are endless. One will suffice. A Florentine noble, who came to pay his court to her, caught a costly lace ruffle in the trimming of her dress, and tore it; as a compensation she sent him six bottles of Spanish wine, corked with Flemish face. Mrs. Billington at one time realized an income of £14,000 a year. Rubini's income one year amounted to £90,000.

THE RHODE ISLAND QUARREL.—A special dispatch to the New York Evening Post from Washington city, says: A piece of political gossip is afloat to the effect that Senator Anthony has lately requested from the War Department copies of all letters written by Senator Sprague, containing charges against officers in Rhode Island regiments during the recent war, whereby many of them were unjustly suspended, and intends using them against Sprague during the next session of Congress. It is understood here among his friends that Senator Anthony will next winter open a vigorous fight on Sprague in the Senate.—The indications are favorable for a lively time between the two Rhode Island Senators when Congress again meets."

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN IN SIX DAYS.—A palace car, full of passengers, that left San Francisco less than a week ago, arrived at New York on Saturday morning, thus traversing the whole continent in the short space of six days. Some of the passengers who came in it embarked on Saturday afternoon for Europe, and may arrive in Liverpool in nine days more, thus traversing the whole distance from the shores of California to the shores of England in fifteen days. All this vast journey of nearly seven thousand miles will have been without difficulty or fatigue, first in a luxurious railroad car, and then in an equally luxurious steamship.

Here is a bit of French philosophy by Dumas, the younger: "Walk two hours every day. Sleep seven hours every night. Get up as soon as you awake. Speak only when necessary, and say only half what you think. Don't write anything but what you can sign. Think neither too much nor too little of money; it is a good servant but a bad master. Beware of women before you are twenty. Avoid them after you are forty."

Yellow fever is said to be prevailing to an alarming extent in Pensacola, Florida.

Valuable Property for Sale in Raleigh and Wake County.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Court of Equity for this County, W. S. Mason, Commissioner, will sell at the Court House, to the highest bidder, all of the Real Estate of the late Sarah Stronach, dec'd, to wit:

One House and Lot, in the City of Raleigh, containing two acres, more or less; said house in fair condition, has six rooms and good basement. On the Lot there is a very fine Well of Water and all necessary out-houses. The fences are nearly all of new and sound timber, and the soil in fine condition. There are quite a number of Shade and Fruit Trees on the premises. Also a Lot containing three-fourths of an acre, more or less, near the above mentioned one. Both Lots are on Bargett street, just beyond the city Cemetery, and on the direct road to the 'State Fair Grounds.' Also a Tract of Land about five miles from the City, which is very well timbered, and adjoins the lands of W. E. Pearce and others.

This property will be sold on the 28th day of August A. D. 1869.

BUFFALO SPRINGS.

THIS ANCIENT AND TIME HONORED watering place is situated in the upper end of Mecklenburg county, Va., about seven miles west of Clarksville, and in about fifteen miles of Scottsburg Depot, on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, where a stage will meet the train daily, and convey passengers to the Springs.

The water of this Spring gushes out of the crevice of a rock at the foot of a gradually sloping hill, and is thrown up at a rate of about forty-five gallons per hour. On its way to the neighboring brook into which it empties, it tinges the mud of a dark bluish color, emitting to strangers a rather offensive, sulphurous odor. The water is perfectly limpid and pure, and has a slightly brackish taste mingled with the flavor and odor of sulphuretted hydrogen gas, which enters largely into its composition, as the following analysis will show:

In a wine gallon, gaseous contents: sulphuretted hydrogen gas 0,54089 grs., or 1.2 f cubic inches. Solid contents: sulphate of magnesia, 8 grs; sulphate of lime, 3.5 grs; sulphate of protoxide of iron 2.6 grs; chloride of sodium, a trace; chloride of magnesium, a trace; sulphate of soda, 1.3 grs; total weight of gaseous and solid contents, 15.54089 grs; temperature 60 degrees Fahrenheit; specific gravity, 1.058.

The medicinal properties of this water have been a matter of notoriety for nearly a century. In diseases of the liver, stomach, urinary organs, female complaints, dropsy, general debility, &c., &c., this water is second to no other in the State; and were it situated among the watering places in Virginia, surrounded by the sublime scenery of that portion of the State, the famous Green-brier White Sulphur would find in old Buffalo no mean rival.

The rates of Board are $1 50 per day, $12,50 per week, $40 per month. Children, under ten years of age and colored servants, half price. These prices are as low as good board can be furnished, and I intend to give good board.

From the numerous letters I have received and the engagements of board already made, I expect the fullest season I have had since the war. I pledge myself to the public (who may favor me with their patronage) to have nothing undone for their comfort which I can do.

For Sale: A large pair of Mules, by W. H. Jones & Co.

G. T. Stronach advertises valuable real estate, to be sold on the 28th of August next.

PERSONAL.—Col. C. O. Sandford, late President of the Petersburg and Weldon Railroad and Col. D. G. Potts, Treasurer of the same, are in the city, and stopping at the Yarboro'.

SOMETHING NICE.—We received, this morning, at the hands of a friend, a present from W. B. Checks, Esq., Stockville P. O., Buncombe county, N. C., that is eminently worth bragging about. It is a box 11 inches long, 6 inches wide and 4½ inches deep, with glass sides and ends, filled with the most beautiful and rich looking honey we ever saw, arranged in flakes and layers, just as the little architects constructed them. The gentleman, by whom the box was forwarded, informs us that Mr. Checks has an extensive apiary, from which he has taken, this season, a large quantity of honey. He expects to have about five hundred pounds, similar to that sent us, at our State Fair, this Fall. It will, we have no doubt, take first premium in its line, and, if he wishes to sell it, will "go off like hot cakes."

We thank Mr. Checks for his very acceptable present.

IT WON'T DO.—The Standard seems determined to provoke a "squib" controversy with the Sentinel, if it can, and to this end such number of that paper is characterized by one or more disingenuous and false statements, which usually we have let pass as unworthy of notice. Nor is it our intention, now, to enter into any badinage squabble with the "wit" Editor of that paper, but refer to, for the purpose of explaining and contradicting, two paragraphs which appear in the Standard this morning.

The one is, that the Sentinel of yesterday had telegraphic dispatches a week old; because, in making up the form, the printer inadvertently put the wrong day of the week at the head of the telegraphic column, while the dates otherwise were correct. The writer of the paragraph knew he was penning a falsehood when he wrote it.

The other is, that we copied the Supreme Court opinions from the Standard without giving credit, which is an arrant falsehood. We got the originals, after the Standard was permitted to retain them two days, and used them, setting them more correctly than the Standard did, as a comparison will show.

As we have said, we do not intend to enter into a controversy with the Standard, on this or any similar subject; we allude to these paragraphs, now, to show the disingenuous and unfair manner of that paper, while it is, at the same time, arrogating to itself great observance of courtesy and fairness.

BAILED.—Walker and Bell, the former accused of stabbing Putney, and the latter with stabbing Moss, in Goldsboro', last week, were brought before Judge Watts, on a writ of habeas corpus, yesterday, and admitted to bail, each, in the sum of five hundred dollars, to appear and answer at the next term of Wake Superior Court. We suppose that other testimony than that given before the Mayor, was elicited at this examination, or we cannot see how the Judge could admit bail in the case of Walker.

MONTHLY MONITOR.—This is the name of a small sheet published in Newbern, in the interest, we believe, of the North Carolina Masonic Life Insurance Company. The price is 50 cents per annum, and, taking the number before us a fair specimen, it is well worth the money.

The Masonic Insurance Company doesn't make a very brilliant flourish in the way of heralding its claims to the world, but it is doing what it pretends to do in a quiet and certain manner.

NEW STORE.—We see there is a new building going up at the corner of Martin and Bloodworth streets, designed for a retail store. Mr. James M. Harris is the proprietor; but whether he is going into business himself or designs the house for rent we did not learn.

We notice a wood building commenced on a lot belonging to Mrs. Penny Smith, immediately west of Capitol Square, but did not learn for what purpose it was designed, whether a business house or residence.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—Burwell Perry, (white) was committed to jail to day, on suspicion of having stolen an ox. It seems Burwell brought an ox to town during last night, and sold him for about half his value to one of our butchers. Now, as Burwell was never known, in all the past of his natural life, to have as much of this world's goods as would amount even to a yearling, suspicion was aroused and he was arrested on the suspicion of having stolen the ox he offered in Market. He was committed by His Honor, Mayor Harrison, until the facts in the case can be ascertained.

STILL HEADING CAPT. TYLER.—We learn that His Excellency, Governor Holden, sued out an injunction before Judge Watts, last night, to keep Cebe from interfering in the Stockholders' meeting of the W. C. & R. R. R. Company, to come off in Wilmington on the 29th. Poor Cebe! The Governor is hedging him in on every side.

KOSKOO, the great Liver Invigorator, Blood Purifier, and Renovator, prepared by Dr. J. J. Lawrence, the celebrated Physician and Chemist, is a SAFE, PLEASANT, and RELIABLE remedy, for the PREVENTION and CURE of all diseases caused by A TORPID LIVER, IMPURE BLOOD, DISORDERS of the KIDNEYS, or DEBILITY of the NERVOUS SYSTEM.

It REGULATES the secretions, ERADICATES all HUMORS or TAINTS, restores lost or wasted nervous power, and at the same time builds up and imparts tone and vigor to the whole system.

PERSONAL.—We learn that the Hon. E. A. Rollins, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is now acting as President of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, at the Company's Branch Office, in Philadelphia, during the temporary absence in Europe, of the President, C. H. Clark, Esq. Mr. Rollins has been an active member of the Board of Directors of this Company since its organization, and in giving to its interest the benefit of his personal co-operation, and the advantages of his enlarged experience and extensive acquaintance, we confidently look for a renewed impetus to be given to the already unprecedented progress of this great National Institution.

See advertisement of P. F. Pescud, General Agent.

GENERAL NEWS.

A joint stock company with a capital of $50,000, is now being formed in Gordonsville, Va., for the purpose of developing the manufacturing interests of that place.

On a single building recently constructed at Richmond, Va., were employed as mechanics a Colonel, a Major, two Captains and several Lieutenants, all of whom fought under General R. E. Lee.

The entry of Don Carlos into the province of Navarre is confirmed. Great precautions are being taken by the Spanish Government.

Commander F. W. Ramsey, of the United States Navy, was married recently at Buenos Ayres to Miss Annie C. McMahon, a sister of the Minister.

The Harvard crew are at Putney, England. They decline the challenge of the London club.

The postmaster and express agent, named Brayton, located at Pacific City, Iowa, absconded with $20,000 express money. Parties are now in pursuit.

Prof. Shaler, of Newport, Ky., is in Boone county digging for mastodon bones for Cambridge University. He has exhumed a large quantity.

The next State elections will be in Kentucky, August 2d; Alabama, August 3d; Tennessee, August 5th; Montana, August 10th.

Among the passengers by the steamer Japan from China who arrived at San Francisco the other day were 102 Chinese women, sent specially for the practice of prostitution.

UNPRECEDENTED YIELD.—Doctor C. J. Powell, of Orange County, Va., from eight bushels of wheat seeded out upon one acre and a half of land, with 1,000 pounds of guano, has realized 210 bushels. This is said to be without precedent anywhere on the Atlantic slope.

Experiments are being made in Belgium with a mitrailleuse invented by M. Montigny. It is a machine composed of thirty-seven tubes. Two artillerymen are enough to maneuver it. In three minutes the mitrailleuse fired 370 shots, of which 278 hit the target, 52 missed and 40 missed fire.

Lieutenant Commander H. B. Feeley, of the U. S. steamer Pawnee, has been arrested at Portsmouth, N. H., and held to bail on two warrants charging him with unwarranted cruelty to several seamen of that vessel.

Wheaton, the brother-in-law of the Rev. Mr. Halleck, who was killed at Mast Hope has published a letter in which he says: "Had there been a helping hand as soon as the cars struck, sufficient time elapsed before the fire came to have got Mr. Halleck out and saved his life, with many others who perished in the flames."

NEW GREENBACK DOLLARS.—The Treasury Department, it is stated, will soon issue new United States notes of the denomination of one dollar, the plates for which are now being engraved. Upon the new notes the bust of Washington will be substituted for the vignette of Chief Justice Chase.—This is in accordance with an act of Congress, which prohibits the likeness of any person now living from being on the face of the national currency.

The people of Lagrange, Texas, have gone to work to repair the damage done by the flood. The "New Era" says: "Our city is rapidly resuming its usual appearance.—There has been a general rubbing and renovating. All the stores and business houses present a fresh appearance. The fences are being repaired and rebuilt, and the streets are fast drying up. A visitor would hardly believe that all these nice stores were under water last Saturday."

STATE NEWS.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—On the approach of the heavy storm, Thursday morning, a number of colored hands employed on the plantation of Col. John Taylor, in Brunswick, took refuge in an out building on the premises, and shortly after their entrance the chimney was struck by lightning, instantly killing a valuable field hand named Larry Cowan, and severely shocking a colored woman; but none of the remainder of the party were injured.—Wil. Star.

FIRE IN WILMINGTON.—A fire brok out in the Barrel Factory of Strauza and Rice, in Wilmington, on Saturday evening last, by which the establishment was destroyed—loss $25 000; insurred to $9,500. Some other buildings, contiguous, were also damaged.

A HELPING HAND.—Gen. Abbott made a speech in Wilmington on Friday night last in the Eagle's interest. A U. S. Senator coming down to mix in a factional squabble between aspirants to a seat in the Legislature! The Eagle's men must be a little frightened at the prospect, when they consider such extra efforts necessary.

PRESIDENT BOUTWELL.

Old "Hole in the Sky," alias Boutwell, appears to rule Grant with a rod of iron.—Ulysses is nominally President, but Boutwell is master. Grant's disposition seems to be fair and conciliatory to the Southern States, and he makes their representatives all sorts of fine promises, meaning, no doubt at the time, to fulfil them; but whether he does or not, depends upon his master, Boutwell. What kind of a run would Boutwell have made for the Presidency? Yet this man, who could not have had the impudence even to aspire to that office, this utterly irresponsible damagogue, is really the President of this great Republic, whilst Grant, who was elected to that office, is a mere wooden figure head of the ship which Boutwell steers. This is a new invention in republican politics. The people of the United States have had no more to do in the choice of their actual ruler than the people of Russia. Hereditary despots generally choose some able man to conduct the government for them, and this is necessary, because they are often incompetent themselves. Our republican theory is, that the people themselves shall choose their most capable citizen to direct executive affairs, but that is not our practice. It seems, indeed, as if the elective principle had come to be as impotent as the hereditary in the production of competent heads of government. There is no crowned head in Europe as weak and imbecile in statesmanship as the President of the United States. Most of them have at least sense enough to select capable advisers. The Emperor of Austria has Van Buest, one of the master minds of Europe, and the King of Prussia has Bismarck. Grant has Boutwell. He passed by all the acknowledged leaders of the Republican party in the Senate of the United States, and took this narrow-minded, puritanical, partisan pigmy, to be his master, and what is of more importance, the master of the country. We see no hope for the restoration of national peace and prosperity while this malign and irresponsible despot wields the power of the Presidency.—Baltimore Statesman.

CANBY PLAYING FALSE IN VIRGINIA.

We fear that the apparent fair play about the Virginia election was only a sham, and it turns out that we were right, for, finding that they could not carry their point and preserve a show of character at the same time, the Radicals are going to undo the whole thing, by making the election a practical nullity. They have no trouble about the matter, for in General Canby they have found a first rate tool ready to hand. He will not convene the Legislature to ratify the Fifteenth Amendment and elect United States Senators, until he is sure of his men, until he is sure that the interests of Radicalism will not be endangered by the return of two Conservatives to the Senate of the United States. And with this view he has sent circulars to the newly-elected members of the Virginia Legislature, requiring each to take the iron-clad test oath before he can take his seat. In case a sufficient number of qualified members of both Houses cannot be found to form a quorum, General Canby will order a new election, and in this easy, indifferent matter of course way, set aside the popular verdict, and show to the world what a stupendous farce the Virginians were bidden by General Grant to assist at. Such is the programme, and to carry it out Canby is the right man in the right place, as he has proved on many an occasion. But why does he not follow his own lead in the case of South Carolina? Why is Virginia to be more harshly dealt with than the "cradle of secession?" Because there are squalley times ahead. Because the Radical outworks are being carried on every side at point of the ballot, and Ultras are beginning to fear for the citadel itself.

But has General Grant nothing to say in this matter? Is not his self respect as a man and his honor as a soldier concerned in it? Did he not insist that it should be a fair election, decided by the free votes of the people? Well, it was a fair election—the papers admit that—and if he has a spark of manliness about him, he will see that it is respected. If he does not, it won't take much time to cipher up what Grant's word is worth. We have little faith in him.—Metropolitan Record.

VERY SINGULAR.—From Bell's station, Tenn., come the particulars of a most singular phenomenon. William Rowell was struck suddenly deaf and dumb, a few days ago, while en route to Memphis from his place of residence. Out of mere sport, when a newsboy came round and offered him a paper, he feigned to be both deaf and dumb, and in this way annoyed the vender. The newsboy passed on, but the unfortunate joker never spoke again. When he began to realize the extent of his misfortune he got off the train, bound for Memphis, at Mason's Depot, and took the first return train. On the cars he indulged in loud lamentations and cries, as if sorely distressed. On his arrival home, so soon as he stepped out on the platform, he seized a pencil and a bit of paper from a citizen, and wrote, "struck dumb on account of my folly," and continued weeping in most piteous tones.—Nashville (Tenn.) Banner.

TELEGRAPHIC.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In view of a partially incorrect dispatch telegraphed at noon to day Rev. Mr. Lynch, (colored) deserves the transmission of the following: Mr. Lynch has arranged for an interview with Judge Dent and General Grant on Thursday next. Lynch declares that all further efforts at reconstruction should be based on universal suffrage and universal amnesty. That the white people of Mississippi have as thoroughly abandoned resistance to the doctrines of the Republican party as they did to the government when the armies of General Lee surrendered; that they do not feel any interest in common with the Democratic party; that when the Southern white man concedes to the colored equal political rights there is no issue between them and to create one will be a curse to both races. Lynch has conferred with many of the leading Republicans.

Revenue to-day nearly a million.

The Secretary of War returns to-morrow.

The Treasury department has information of the seizure of a hundred barrels of alcohol at New Orleans.

Ex Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi leaves this evening for the North. He represents the condition of affairs in his State to be very hopeful, and says there is great anxiety among all classes to have the State back into the Union. The Conservative Republican Convention meet in September. He thinks there is no doubt about Judge Dent receiving the nomination.

Commissioner Delano decides that stamped signatures of Collectors on liquor stamps are unauthorized. Hereafter actual signatures will be required.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, July 27, M.—Gen. Canby has ordered that as much of the January interest of the State debt, as the Treasurer is able to pay, shall be paid at once. There is over four hundred thousand dollars in the State Treasury which is a little over half the amount due on the January interest.

FOREIGN.

HAVANA, July 27.—Official reports state that the regular effective troops consists of 32,000, and 4,000 volunteers. The rebels have 6,000 well armed men and many guerrilla bands.

Sevianno orders the withholding of the Jesuit College stipend, owing to the indiscretion of the Directors.

The volunteers surprised and killed 18 rebels near Remedios. A skirmish between Villa Clara and Sagua resulted in the loss of twenty rebels, including Maj. Morques.

Sugar firmer. Large business doing, but prices unchanged.

LONDON, July 27, M.—There are rumors of a new treaty between France, Austria and Italy, whereby Italy furnishes fifty thousand troops and is to occupy Viterbo in case of a war.

It is rumored that Prussia offers the Pope twelve thousand troops should France vacate Rome. Egypt is arming extensively.

The Royal assent to the disestablishment bill has been sent to both Houses; Commons applauded loudly.

Special Notices.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtues of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvement generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week,	16 00
Per day,	2 50

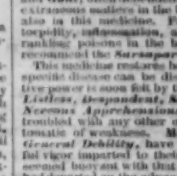
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, intemperance, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes and Ears, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms

STRANGERS NOW.

Years of checkered life together,
Days of fair and stormy weather,
Hours of toil and weary pain,
Moments of eternal gain—
All are gone—we know not how,
And have left us strangers now!

Words that flow to lighten care,
Thoughts which others could not share,
Hopes too bright for mortal eyes,
Prayers for wisdom from the skies—
All have ceased—we know not how,
And have left us strangers now!

Will it evermore be thus?
Shall the past be lost to us?
Can the souls, united here,
Never once again be near?
Must we to the sentence bow—
"Strangers ever, strangers now?"

Thorns amid the roses press;
Earth is but a wilderness
Flitting o'er a fallen race,
Love can find no resting place;
Where his flowers immortal grow,
Shall we strangers be as now?

JAMES H. FOOTE,
L. C LATHAM,
Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any manner or forms they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents teat already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.

JOHN SKINNER,
Secretary.

A PROCLAMATION,

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF N. C.,
Raleigh, June 21, 1869.

WHEREAS, Official information has been received at this Department that a vacancy exists in the 19th Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Wake and Franklin, caused by the death of Richard I. Wynne, Esq., late Senator from said District.

Now, therefore, I, WM. W. HOLDEN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority conferred by law, do issue this proclamation, ordering an election to be held at the several places of voting in the Counties aforesaid, on the first Thursday in August next, for the purpose of filling said vacancy.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this 21st June [L. S.] 1869, and in the 93rd year of our independence.
